WHY VIETNAM?

India is Vietnam's fastest-growing tourism market — up 48.9% in 2025 · 746,000+ Indian visitors

Vietnam has become one of the most cherished destinations for Indian families, couples and solo travellers. Dramatic landscapes, rich culture, vibrant street food, genuine warmth from locals — and a price point that makes it one of the finest-value holidays available from India. Our founder Manoj Kholia travelled Vietnam as a regular tourist, experienced the gaps firsthand, and came back determined to do it better. Every itinerary we build today carries that spirit.

 Only 4–6 Hours Away Direct flights from Delhi, Mumbai, Bengaluru & Kolkata. No long layovers — you're in Vietnam faster than reaching many Indian hill stations.	 Easy 90-Day E-Visa Apply online at evisa.gov.vn — ~$2,100, 3 working days, no embassy visit. Multiple entry. We assist if needed.
 Exceptional Value Your rupee stretches remarkably far. World-class experiences at a fraction of European or Australian prices.	 Breathtaking Landscapes UNESCO Ha Long Bay, Sapa rice terraces, Phong Nha caves, Hoi An lanterns — extraordinary at every turn.
 Indian Food in 9 Cities Vegetarian, Jain & halal options covered across Hanoi, HCMC, Da Nang, Hoi An, Hue, Nha Trang, Ha Long, Da Lat & Phu Quoc.	 Shared Cultural Values Respect for elders, family bonds, Buddhism, vegetarian traditions — deep parallels with Indian culture throughout.

2025 Growth Story: India recorded 746,000 arrivals to Vietnam — a 48.9% year-on-year surge, making India Vietnam's single fastest-growing major tourism market globally. The India–Vietnam air corridor is expanding rapidly with new direct routes from more Indian cities.

CULTURE & ETIQUETTE

Respect local customs — travel with confidence and warmth

Vietnam's culture is shaped by thousands of years of history, Buddhism, Confucianism, and French colonial influence. As an Indian traveller you'll find many familiar values — deep respect for elders, strong family bonds, and spiritual practice. A few simple customs earn you warm smiles everywhere.

01

Greet with "Xin Chào"

Pronounced "sin jow" — means hello. Locals genuinely appreciate the effort. A slight nod accompanies it respectfully.

02

Remove shoes at temples & homes

Shoes off before entering pagodas, temples and many traditional homes — identical to Indian tradition. Follow what locals do.

03

Dress modestly at religious sites

Cover shoulders and knees at pagodas. Many provide sarongs to borrow. Avoid sleeveless tops at sacred places.

04

Ask before photographing people

Always seek permission before photographing monks, elderly people and ethnic minority communities.

05

Use both hands when giving/receiving

Handing money, gifts or business cards with both hands is respectful — exactly the same custom as in India.

06

Bargain politely at markets

Expected at Ben Thanh Market, Hoi An Night Market and Hanoi's Old Quarter. Start at 40–50%. Always smile — never argue.

Key Festivals — Time Your Visit

Festival	When	What Happens
Tet (Lunar New Year)	Late Jan / Feb	Vietnam's biggest celebration — family reunions, fireworks, lucky money. Everything

SMART TRAVELLER TIPS

Insider advice from our Vietnam specialists — read before you fly

01

Buy a SIM card at the airport immediately

Viettel, Vinaphone or Mobifone — buy in arrivals hall before exiting. A 7–10 day data SIM costs ■650–1,000. Bring your passport. Much cheaper than roaming.

02

Download these apps before you fly

Grab (transport), Google Maps offline, XE Currency (live VND rates), Google Translate with camera mode for menus & signs, Agoda for last-minute hotels.

03

Book Ha Long Bay cruise well in advance

Quality cabins sell out 4–8 weeks ahead in peak season (Oct–Apr). Overnight cruises vastly outperform day trips. Budget from ■6,500 per person.

04

Best time to visit: October to April

Ideal weather across all Vietnam regions. Feb–April is perfect for school holidays. Avoid Tet week (Jan/Feb) unless you specifically want the festival experience.
